DETAILED ACTION

REJECTIONS WITHDRAWN

1. There are no rejections withdraw.

REJECTIONS REPEATED

2. All of the 103(a) and double patenting rejections set forth in the non-final rejection of 6/26/07, pages 2-7, paragraphs 4-10 are repeated for the reasons of record.

NEW REJECTIONS

3. There are no new rejections.

ANSWERS TO APPLICANT'S ARGUMENTS

4. Applicant's arguments of 8/31/07 have been carefully considered but are deemed unpersuasive.

Applicant has argued that there is no motivation to add the gel reducing additive of Camilleri to Bonk which recite a blend of thermoplastic polyurethane and hydroxyl functional polymer since the polyurethane of Bonk is already formed and the gel reducing additive of Camilleri is to be consumed. However, Camillari specifically discloses that the gel reducing additive prevents the formation of gel particles in the polyurethane (column 3, lines 24-26) which provides specific motivation to add the gel reducing additive to Bonk. Furthermore, Camilleri specifically states that towards the end of the desired reaction, the additive reacts with free unreacted isocyanato groups to eliminate them from the product (column 3, lines 30-35) which is exactly the mechanism stated by applicant in the instant specification (see paragraph [0022]).

The arguments above (with reference to Camilleri) are also repeated with regards to the double patenting rejections.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
